The Dialogue of the Savior

(1) The Savior said to his disciples, “Already the time has come, brothers, for us to abandon our labor and stand at rest. For whoever stands at rest will rest forever. And I say to you, [be] always [above ...] time ... [...] ... you [...] be afraid [of ...] ... you ... [...] ... anger [is] fearful [...] arouse anger ... [... is ...] but since you have ... [...] ... [...] they accepted these words [concerning it] with [fear] and trembling, and it set them up with governors, for from it nothing was forthcoming. But when I came, I opened the path and I taught them about the passage which they will traverse, the elect and solitary, [who have known the Father, having believed] the truth and [all] the praises while you offered praise.”

(2) “So when you offer praise, do so like this: Hear us, Father, just as you heard your only-begotten son and received him [and] gave him rest from many ... [... You are the one] whose power [... your] armor ... [... is ...] ... light [...] ... living [...] ... touch [...] ... the word [...] repentance ... life [...] ... you. You are [the] thinking and the [entire] serenity of the solitary. Again: [Hear] us just as you heard your elect. Through your [sacrifice these] will enter; through their [good] works these have saved their souls from these blind [limbs] so that they might exist eternally. Amen.”

(3) “I will teach you. When the time of dissolution arrives, the first power of darkness will come upon you. Do not be afraid and say, ‘Behold! The time has come!’ But when you see a single staff this ... understand ... [...] ... the work ... [...] and the governors ... [...] come upon you ... [...]. Truly, fear is the [power ...] ____ So if you are going to be [afraid] of what is about to come upon [you], it will engulf you. For there is not one among them who will spare you or show [you] mercy. But in this way, look at [the ...] in it, since you have mastered every word on earth. It [... take] you up to the ... [place] where there is no rule [... tyrant]. When you [... you] will see those who [...] ... and also ... [... tell] you ... [...] ... the reasoning power [...] reasoning power ... [... place] of truth [...] ... but ... [...]. But you [...] ... truth, this [...] ... living ... [... and] your joy [...]. So [...] ... in order that [...] your souls [...] lest it [...] the word [...] ... raise ... [...] [...] ... your ... [...] ... [...] [...] ... [...] ---- For the crossing place is fearful [before you]. But you, [with a] single mind, pass [it] by! For its depth is great; [its] height [is] enormous [...] a single mind ... [...] and the fire ... [...] ... [... all] the powers [...] ... you, they ... [...] and the [powers ...] they ... [...] ... [...] ... soul ... [...] ... [...] in everyone [... you] are the ... [...] and ... [...] ... forget ... [...] ... son ... [...] and you [...] ... [...] you ... [...] ... [...].”

(4) [Matthew] said, “[How ...]?”

(5) The Savior said, “[...] ... the things inside you [...] ... will remain, you [...].”

(6) Judas [said], “Lord, [...] ... the works [...] these souls, these [...] these little ones, when [...] where will they be? [...] ... [...] ... the spirit [...].”

(7) The Lord [said], “[...] ... [... receive] them. These do not die, [...] ... they are not destroyed, for they have known [their] consorts and him who would [receive them]. For the truth seeks [out the] wise and the righteous.”

(8) The Savior [said], “The lamp [of the body] is the mind. As long as [the things inside] you are set in order, that is, [...] ... , your bodies are luminous. As long as your hearts are [dark], the luminosity you anticipate [...] I have ... [...] ... I will go ... [...] ... my word ... [...] I send ... [...].”

(9) His [disciples said, “Lord], who is it who seeks, and [...] reveals?”

(10) [The Lord said to them], “He who seeks [...] reveals. ...”

(11) [Matthew said, “Lord, when] I [...] and [when] I speak, who is it who ... [...] ... who listens?”

(12) [The Lord] said, “It is the one who speaks who also [listens], and it is the one who can see who also reveals.”

(13) [Mary] said, “Lord, behold! Whence [do I] bear the body [while I] weep, and whence while I [...]?”

(14) The Lord said, “[...] weep on account of its works [...] remain and the mind laughs [...] [...] ... spirit. If one does not [...] darkness, he will be able to see [...]. So I tell you [...] light is the darkness [...] ... stand in [...] not see the light [...] the lie [...] ... they brought them from [...] ... [...]. You will give [...] ... and [...] exist] forever. [...] ... [...] ... ever. Then [all] the powers which are above as well as those [below] will [...] you. In that place [there will] be weeping and [gnashing] of teeth over the end of [all] these things.”

(15) Judas [said], “Tell [us, Lord], what was [...] before [the heaven and the] earth existed.”

(16) The Lord said, “There was darkness and water and spirit upon [water]. And I say [to you, ... what] you seek [after ...] inquire after ... [...] within you ... [...] ... the power and the [mystery ...] spirit, for from ... [...] wickedness [...] come ... [...] mind ... [...] behold [...].”

(17) [...] said, “[Lord], tell us where [the ... is established] and where [the true mind] exists.”

(18) The Lord [said], “The fire [of the] spirit came into existence ... [...] both. On this account, the [...] came into existence, and the [true] mind came into existence [within] them [...]. If someone [sets his soul] up high, [then he will] be exalted.”

(19) And Matthew [asked him ...] ... took ... [...] ... it is he who ... [...].”

(20) The Lord [said], “[... stronger] than ... [...] ... you ... [...] ... [...] ... to follow [you] and all the works [...] your hearts. For just as your hearts [...], so [...] the means to overcome the powers [above] as well as those below [...]. I say to you, let him [who possesses] power renounce [it and repent]. And [let] him who [...] seek and find and [rejoice].”

(21) Judas [said], “Behold! [I] see that all things exist [...] like signs upon [...]. On this account did they happen thus.”

(22) The Lord [said], “When the [Father established] the cosmos, he [...] water from it [and his] Word came forth from it and it inhabited many ... [...]. It was higher than the [path ... surround] the entire earth ... [...] ... the [collected] water [...] existing outside them. [...] ... the water, a great fire [encircling] them like a wall. ... [...] ... time once many things had become separated [from what] was inside. When the [...] was established, he looked ... [...] and said to it, ‘Go, and ... [...] from yourself in order that ... [...] be in want from generation to [generation, and] from age to age.’ [Then it] cast forth from itself [fountains] of milk and [fountains of] honey and oil and [wine] and [good] fruits and sweet flavor and good roots, [in order that] it might not be deficient from generation [to] generation, and from age [to age].”

(23) “And it is above ... [... ..] standing [...] ... its beauty ... [...] ... and outside [there was a great] light, powerful [...] ... resemble it, for it [...] ... rules over [all] the aeons [above] and below. [...] was] taken from the fire ... [...] ... it was scattered in the [...] ... above and [below. All] the works [which] depend on them, it is they [...] over the heaven above [and over] the earth [below]. On them depend all [the works].”

(24) [And] when [Judas] heard these things, he bowed down and he [...] and he offered praise to the Lord.

(25) [Mary] hailed her brethren, [saying], “Where are you going to put [these things] about which you ask the son ... [...]?”

(26) [The Lord said] to her, “Sister, [...] will be able to inquire about these things [except for someone who] has somewhere to put them in his [heart ...] ... to come [forth ...] and enter ... [...] ... [...] so that they might not hold back ... [...] this impoverished cosmos.”

(27) [Matthew] said, “Lord, I want [to see] that place of life [...] where there is no wickedness, [but rather] there is pure [light]!”

(28) The Lord [said], “Brother [Matthew], you will not be able to see it [as long as you are] carrying flesh around.”

(29) [Matthew] said, “Lord, [even if I will] not [be able] to see it, let me [know it]!”

(30) The Lord [said], “[Everyone] who has known himself has seen [it in] everything given to him to do [...] ... and has come to [...] it in his [goodness].”

(31) [Judas] responded, saying, “Tell me, Lord, [how it is that ...] ... which shakes the earth moves.”

(32) The Lord picked up a [stone and] held it in his hand, [saying, “What] am I holding [in] my [hand]?”

(33) He said, “[It is] a stone.”

(34) He [said] to them, “That which supports [the earth] is that which supports the heaven. When a Word comes forth from the Greatness, it will come on what supports the heaven and the earth. For the earth does not move. Were it to move, it would fall. But it neither moves nor falls, in order that the First Word might not fail. For it was that which established the cosmos and inhabited it and inhaled fragrance from it. For, ... [...] ... which do not move [...] ... you, all the sons of [men. For] you are from [that] place. [In] the hearts of those who speak out of [joy] and truth you exist. Even if it comes forth in [the body] of the Father among men and is not received, still it [...] return to its place. Whoever [does not] know [the work] of perfection [knows] nothing. If one does not stand in the darkness, he will not be able to see the light.”

(35) “If [one] does not [understand how] fire came into existence, he will burn in it, because he does not know the root of it. If one does not first understand water, he knows nothing. For what use is there for him to be baptized in it? If one does not understand how blowing wind came into existence, he will blow away with it. If one does not understand how body, which he bears, came into existence, he will [perish] with it. And how will someone who does [not] know [the Son] know the [Father]? And to someone who will not know the [root] of all things, they remain hidden. Someone who will not know the root of wickedness is no stranger to it. Whoever will not understand how he came will not understand how he will go, and he is no [stranger] to this cosmos which [will ...], which will be humiliated.”

(36) Then he [... Judas] and Matthew and [Mary ...] ... [...] ... the edge of heaven [and] earth. [And] when he placed his [hand] upon them, they hoped that they might [...] ... it. Judas raised his eyes and saw an exceedingly high place, and he saw the place of the abyss below. Judas said to Matthew, “Brother, who will be able to climb up to such a height or down to the bottom of the abyss? For there is a tremendous fire there and something very fearful!” At that moment, a Word came forth from it. As it stood there, he saw how it had come [down]. Then he said to it, “[Why] have you come down?”

(37) And the Son of Man greeted them and said to them, “A seed from a power was deficient and it went down to [the] abyss of the earth. And the Greatness remembered [it] and he sent the [Word to] it. It brought it up into [his presence] so that the First Word might not fail.” [Then his disciples] were amazed at [all the things] he had said to them, and they accepted them on [faith]. And they concluded that it is useless to regard wickedness.

(38) Then he said to his disciples, “Have I not told you that like a visible voice and flash of lightning will the good be taken up to the light?”

(39) Then all his disciples offered him praise and said, “Lord, before you appeared here, who was it who offered you praise? For all praises exist on your account. Or who is it who will bless [you]? For all blessing derives [from] you.”

(40) As they stood there, he saw two spirits bringing a single soul with them in a great flash of lightning. And a Word came forth from the Son of Man, saying, “Give them their garment!” [And] the small one became like the big one. They were [...] ... [...] ... those who received them. ... [...] each other. Then ... [...] disciples, [whom] he had ... [...].

(41) Mary [said, “...] ... see [...] evil [...] ... them from the first [...] each other.”

(42) The [Lord] said, “[...] ... when you see them ... [...] become huge, they will ... [...] But when you see the Eternal Existent, that is the great vision.”

(43) Then they all said to him, “Tell us about it!”

(44) He said to them, “How do you wish to see it? [By means of a] transient vision or an eternal [vision]?” He went on and said, “[Strive] to save that [which] can follow [you], and to seek it out, and to speak from within it, so that, as you seek it out, [everything] might be in harmony with you! For I [say] to you, truly, the living God [...] ... in you ... [...] ... in him.”

(45) [Judas said, “Truly], I want [...].”

(46) The [Lord said] to him, “[...] living [...] dwells [...] ... entire ... the [deficiency ...].”

(47) [Judas said], “Who ... [...]?”

(48) The Lord said, “[...] all [the] works which ... [...] the remainder, it is they [which you ...] ... [...] ----”

(49) Judas said, “Behold! The governors dwell above us, so it is they who will rule over us!”

(50) The Lord said, "It is you who will rule over them! But when you rid yourselves of jealousy, then you will clothe yourselves in light and enter the bridal chamber."

(51) Judas said, "How will [our] garments be brought to us?"

(52) The Lord said, "There are some who will provide for you, and there are others who will receive [...]. For [it is] they [who will give you] your garments. [For] who [will] be able to reach that place [which] is [the] reward? But the garments of life were given to man because he knows the path by which he will leave. And it is difficult even for me to reach it!"

(53) Mary said, "Thus with respect to 'the wickedness of each day,' and 'the laborer is worthy of his food,' and 'the disciple resembles his teacher.'" She uttered this as a woman who had understood completely.

(54) The disciples said to him, "What is the fullness and what is the deficiency?"

(55) He said to them, "You are from the fullness and you dwell in the place where the deficiency is. And lo! His light has poured [down] upon me!"

(56) [Matthew] said, "Tell me, Lord, how the dead die [and] how the living live."

(57) The [Lord] said, "[You have] asked me about a saying [...] which eye has not seen, [nor] have I heard it except from you. But I say to you that when what invigorates a man is removed, he will be called 'dead.' And when what is alive leaves what is dead, what is alive will be called upon."

(58) Judas said, "Why else, for the sake of truth, do they and live?"

(59) The Lord said, "Whatever is born of truth does not die. Whatever is born of woman dies."

(60) Mary said, "Tell me, Lord, why I have come to this place to profit or to forfeit."

(61) The Lord said, "You make clear the abundance of the revealer!"

(62) Mary said to him, "Lord, is there then a place which is ..., or lacking truth?"

(63) The Lord said, "The place where I am not!"

(64) Mary said, "Lord, you are fearful and [wonderful], and ... [...] ... those who do not know [you]."

(65) Matthew said, "[Why] do we not rest [at once]?"

(66) The Lord said, "When you lay down these burdens!"

(67) Matthew said, "How does the small join itself to the big?"

(68) The Lord said, "When you abandon the works which will not be able to follow you, then you will rest."

(69) Mary said, "I want to understand all things, [just as] they are."

(70) The [Lord] said, "He who will seek out life! For [this] is their wealth. For the ... [...] ... of this cosmos is [...], and its gold and its silver are [misleading]."

(71) His [disciples] said to him, "What should we do to ensure that our work will be perfect?"

(72) The Lord [said] to them, "Be [prepared] in face of everything. [Blessed] is the man who has found ... [...] ... the contest ... his eyes. [Neither] did he kill, nor was [he] killed, but he came forth victorious."

(73) [Judas] said, "Tell me, Lord, what the beginning of the path is."

(74) He said, "Love and goodness. For if one of these existed among the governors, wickedness would never have come into existence."

(75) Matthew said, "Lord, you have spoken about the end of everything without concern."

(76) The Lord said, "You have understood all the things I have said to you and you have accepted them on faith. If you have known them, then they are [yours]. If not, then they are not yours."

(77) They said to him, "What is the place to which we are going?"

(78) The [Lord] said, "Stand in the place you can reach!"

(79) Mary said, "Everything established thus is seen."

(80) The Lord [said], "I have told you [that] it is the one who can see who [reveals]."

(81) His [disciples], numbering twelve, asked him, "Teacher, [... ... serenity ...] teach us ... [...]"

(82) The Lord said, "... [...] ... everything which I have ... [...] you will [...] ... you [...] ... everything."

(83) [Mary] said, "There is but one saying I will [speak] to the Lord concerning the mystery of truth: In this have we taken our stand, and to the cosmic are we transparent."

(84) Judas said to Matthew, "We [want] to understand the sort of garments we are to be [clothed] with [when] we depart the decay of the [flesh]."

(85) The Lord said, "The governors [and] the administrators possess garments granted [only for a time,] which do not last. [But] you, as children of truth, not with these transitory garments are you to clothe yourselves. Rather, I say [to] you that you will become [blessed] when you strip [yourselves]! For it is no great thing ... [...] outside."

(86) [... said ...] ... speak, ... [...]"

(87) The Lord said, "... [...] ... your Father ... [...]"

(88) [Mary said, "Of what] sort is that [mustard seed]? Is it something from heaven or is it something from earth?"

(89) The Lord said, "When the Father established the cosmos for himself, he left much over from the Mother of the All. Therefore, he speaks and he acts."

(90) Judas said, "You have told us this out of the mind of truth. When we pray, how should we pray?"

(91) The Lord said, "Pray in the place where there is no woman."

(92) Matthew said, "'Pray in the place where there is [no woman],' he tells us, meaning, 'Destroy the works of womanhood,' not because there is any other [manner of birth], but because they will cease [giving birth]."

(93) Mary said, "They will never be obliterated."

(94) The Lord said, "[Who] knows that they will [not] dissolve and ... [...] ... [...] ... [...] ... ?"

(95) Judas said [to Matthew], “[The works] of [womanhood] will dissolve [...] the governors will ... [...] Thus will we [become] prepared [for] them.”

(96) [The] Lord [said], “Right. For do they see [you? Do they see] those who receive [you]? Now behold! A [true] Word is coming forth from the Father [to the abyss], in silence with a [flash of lightning], giving birth. Do they see it or [overpower] it? But you are even more aware of [the path], this one, [before] either [angel or authority has ...]. Rather it belongs to the Father] and the [Son because they] are both a single [---- And] you [will] go via [the path] which you have [known]. Even [if] the governors become huge [they will] not be able to reach it. [But listen!] I [tell] you [that] it is difficult even [for] me [to reach] it!”

(97) [Mary] said [to the Lord], “When the works [...] ... [...] which] dissolves a [work].”

(98) [The Lord said, “Right. For] you know [...] ... if I dissolve [...] ... will go to his [place].”

(99) Judas said, “How is the [spirit] apparent?”

(100) The Lord said, “How [is] the sword [apparent]?”

(101) [Judas] said, “How is the [light] apparent?”

(102) The Lord said, “... [...] in it forever.”

(103) [Judas] said, “Who forgives the [works] of whom? [The works] which ... [...] the cosmos [...] ... [...] who] forgives the [works].”

(104) The Lord [said], “[Who ...] ...? It behooves whomever has understood [the works] to do the [will] of the Father. And as for [you, strive] to rid [yourselves] of [anger] and [jealousy], and [to strip] yourselves of your [...] ..., and not to ... [...] ... [...] ... [...] ... [...] ... reproach [...]. For I say ... [...] ... you take ... [...] ... you ... [...] who has sought, having [...] ... this, will ... [...] he will live [forever. And] I say to [you ...] ... so that you will not lead [your] spirits and your souls into error.”
