HYP SIPHRONE

XI 69,21–72,33

Hypsiphrone 1

The book [concerning the things] that were seen [by] Hypsiphrone being [revealed] in the place of [her] virginity. [And she listens] to her brethren [...] Phainops and [...] and they speak [with one another] in a [mystery].

Now I [was first by individual] ranking [...] 70 14 I came [forth 15 to the place] of my [virginity] and I went down to the [world. Then I] was told [about] them (by) those who abide in [the place] of my [virginity]. 20

And I went down [to the world] and they said to [me, “Again] Hypsiphrone [has withdrawn] outside the [place of her] virginity.” 25 Then the one [who] heard, Phainops, [who breathes] into [her fount of] blood, spread [out] for her.

[And] he said, [“I am Phainops [...] 71 18 err [...] 20 desire [...] the number] of just the [human] remnants or that I may see a [man, the blood-likeness or [...] 25 of a [...] fire] and a [...] in] his hands.

Then [as for me, I said to] him, [“Phainops] has not [come] upon me; he [has not] gone astray. [...] see] a man [...] him [...] 72 18 For [. . .] which he said [...] Phainops 20 this [...].

I saw him and [he said] to me, “Hypsiphrone, [why do you dwell] outside me? [Follow me] and I will tell [you about them].” So I followed [him], for [I] was in [great] fear. And he [told me] about a fount of [blood] that is [revealed by] setting afire [...] he said [...].
